

EXHIBITION APRIL 26-MAY 24

RUTGERS ART LIBRARY | VOORHEES HALL | 71 HAMILTON STREET | NEW BRUNSWICK

13 FINAL INDIVIDUAL PROJECTS IN THE RUTGERS MASTER OF LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE PROGRAM

VERNISSAGE

Wednesday,
April 26th
4pm - 6pm

OPEN ADMISSION

Public Land, Public Places

Elevating Bergenline Avenue

Connecting
rooftops to embrace Latin culture

The Giffordstown Bog

Water Quality and Habitat Enhancement
Project

"Social Greenway" in Jersey City

Connecting
the Community with History and Cultural Nodes

Roots

Climate Change and Korean Agriculture in the US

Pocket Parks

Designing a Community Hub
for Art, Music, and Play in Sunnyside,
Queens

Fading golf to 12 holes

Along the Raritan

Connecting
Rutgers Gardens
to the D&R Canal
State Trail

Hidden Neighbors

The Education of Beneficial Insects
Through Rutgers
Campus

Walking Over Water

Reimagining the Landscape Bench

Carteret

A Story of Severance

Re-Greening the Concrete Jungle